

Question 7

Collection Notification Australian Privacy Principle 5 focuses on the Notification of the Collection of Personal Information. What are some key matters that an organisation must tell an individual when gathering their data, and does this apply only to directly collected information? [4 marks]

[illegible]

Question 8

Government Identifiers A private sector organisation, such as a gym, requires new members to provide their driver's licence number as part of the sign-up process. This information is then stored in their database. Which Australian Privacy Principle is specifically designed to regulate the handling of such information? Explain the general rule regarding the adoption, use, or disclosure of government identifiers by organisations. [3 marks]

[illegible]

Marking Guide

#	Sample Response	Response	Mark
7	APP 5: Notification of the Collection of Personal Information. Must inform individuals about purpose of collection and who data may be shared with. Applies to both direct/indirect, solicited/unsolicited data.	Identifies APP 5	1
		Lists key matter purpose	1
		Lists key matter sharing	1
		States applies to all collection types	1
8	APP 9: Adoption, Use, or Disclosure of Government Identifiers. Organisations cannot adopt, use, or disclose identifiers (e.g. licence number) except as permitted by law. Gym requiring licence without legal mandate breaches this principle.	Identifies APP 9	1
		Explains general rule (no adoption/use/disclosure unless lawful)	1
		Links to gym scenario	1